

David Kagan

Fracking should be banned for at least two reasons: (1) it is ruining and polluting our environment, and (2) it is past time to DECREASE our use of fossil fuels, not increase it. I know that the first is a real problem, as I live in an area subjected to heavy fracking--north central PA.