

Sharon Mendelson

I have lived in the Delaware River watershed all of my life. I value its presence, wildlife and beauty every day. I do not trust fracking or want the horrible degradation that it causes to contaminate my river valley for myself, my family , my neighbors or the creatures who depend on it for their lives. No.