

Dan Papa

We need a complete ban on fracking in the DRBC. For the sake of safe drinking water for millions and for future generations, we need to do this now. The pollution and leaks and waste water associated with fracking have time and time again been shown as contaminators to water supplies and to the environment. This is common sense.