

Pamela Haines`

The Delaware River provides drinking water to 5% of the US population. I care about my watershed and care about the future for my grandchildren. Please keep the long view in mind and help preserve our ecosystems so that they can provide for our needs into the future.