

Stephen Willey

We've lived in Upper Bucks County on the Delaware River since 1961. We live here especially because of the pristine environment and proximity to the Delaware River for fishing and hiking and boating.

Fracking benefits a few corporations while burdening the residents with the risks. They win, we lose. Please protect us against them. You are all we have. Please do the right thing.