

Melody Von Smith

I appreciate the move to ban fracking in the watershed, and in fact would encourage the Commission to also ban fracking-associated activities, including the storage, treatment and disposal of wastewater. Water is our most precious resource, and this basin is a source of water for nearly 5% of the nation. Please don't risk or squander it, especially given the plentiful energy alternatives that exist. Thank you.