

Elaine Barkan

I'm opposed to allowing fracking in the Delaware River basin. Clean water is much more valuable than natural gas obtained by methods that use good water and return toxic chemicals in it's place. There is enough evidence to show that poisonous chemicals are getting into our local water supplies. We don't need more.