

Roger & Sarah Anderson

I am a resident of Delaware. I am very concerned about our water source. Delaware lives on the quality of ground water. This is not only for human needs but agricultural needs. Fracking and the byproduct that comes with fracking will damage our water source. There should be a full ban on fracking and anything connected to the process. To be clear this ban will apply to the Delaware water shed and the ocean.