

Hans Schweikert

My family and I are firmly opposed to any fracking whatsoever. We can not risk destroying the water table or the environment, especially to extract fossil fuels, which will only further degrade the air we breathe. Anyone who drinks water or breathes air should be very concerned about a company chasing profits at the expense of us and yet unborn generations.