

Richard Kreznar

About eight years ago at a public hearing in Matamoras, PA I asked "After the Delaware River is all messed up who's going to fix it?" That is still an unanswered question. With the present administration it's more important than ever to protect whatever clean freshwater we have. Don't take nor risk contaminating the Delaware River. I'm doing my part: our farm has it's own solar array.