

Marylou streznewski

The Delaware Basin does NOT exist for the profit of gas and oil companies. It exists for the people who live here. NO amount of assurances about safety and lack of harm are enough. FRacking or the use of our water for any purpose should be banned in perpetuity