

andrew stauffer

it is quite contradictorry approving frackink in susquehanna basin and not delaware basin both areas contain very similar topography and water quality i would hope you allow fracking under perhaps stricter standards so our farmers/timberland holders can preserve our watershed