

Theresa Meyers

I am against fracking anywhere on our planet. The damage that this does to the land, the energy needed to get to the product they are trying to extract and the pollution that is done to the air, water and land that is left for hundreds of years for our children to clean up is not worth one dollar being spent on even thinking of doing fracking anywhere on Planet Earth.