

Karen Kreller

Hydraulic fracturing is harmful to our environment which includes the humans who are living in that environment. There is no need for the product. A total ban is the only way to go.
Thank you.