

Susan Vogt

I was born and raised in southeast PA. You should not be making decisions that affect the watershed in secret and preventing input into decisions that enable corporations to skirt their duty. Do your job in the open. This is a terrible amendment, and it would only be proposed because you are doing something illegal or to screw with the people and environment who live there!