

Suzannah Hadorn

The people who will be affected by the DRBC Decisions need to be kept informed when there are discussions. They should take part in the process to be able to put forward their concerns and have a voice in the future that will affect us all.