

jean public

govt of the people by the people for the people, not for administrativ staff to keep the public in the dark. the public voices are very important to keep a lid on things. those working insider always want things for themselves and keeping th epublci in the dark enables criminal actions. its sneaky and suspicious. open and transparent is what all govts should want. if they dont want it, something is wrong with the agencyh itself. stop tryin to keep the public out.stop enabling corruption
