

jack doig

Seems these folks who want to make these dangerous environmental decisions don't give a damn about their grandchildren's futures? How could they be more foolish, possibly their financial futures could improve if they happen to make the right decisions? How ridiculously corrupt, but.....money talks. Please don't let this happen!