

Kevin Ingram

The proposed changes for non disclosure of DRBC actions should be made public. The Delaware River belongs to every citizen in the Delaware Valley who utilize the River for drinking water, recreation, boating and it's scenic beauty. Any activity that the DRBC is involved with should be made public and have a period reserved for public input. None of the meeting minutes from any DRBC meetings should be hidden or behind closed doors.