

Krista Powell

As these proposed amendments are considered, I'd like to encourage greater transparency and fair opportunities to provide meaningful and informed public participation in the approvals and policies the DRBC makes. The public is affected by these crucial decisions and should be involved in the outcome.