

John O'Connor

Have we learned nothing from the past? We can not use our limited freshwater resources as a dumping ground. The increased flow of untreated waste is too much and will have a generational effect on Boysen and the Wind River. Please don't allow this to go forward as proposed.