

Nancy Alley

I am stunned that dumping contaminated water from the Moneta Divide into Boysen Reservoir would ever be a consideration! Why? What a stupid idea. Not only would it have dire consequences on Boysen, but that water flows into the sacred Native American waters below and moves onto other rivers and tributaries. This is not a viable option and another means of disposal must be found. Let's do the right thing here, not the easy one.