

Tanya Penrod

Wyoming needs the jobs that this proposal would bring to this state. The revenues created would greatly assist the public schools as well as many other entities. Like it or not, if you want to diversify Wyoming's economy, we need to accept that we can do this while still welcoming oil and gas companies.