

Rick Harrison

Don't pollute our waters for your profit you can treat it before it is released into the big horn basin drainage .We irrigate with these waters fish and recreate their are state parks national parks and Trible lands affected by your ignorance for self profit no amount of energy is worth the loss of these waters