

Tania Chavez

I feel that dumping wastewater in Boysen will affect the local ecology of the reservoir and the river. This contaminated water will negatively affect fish, insects, wildlife, and humans. In Wyoming we pride ourselves in living in harmony with nature and taking care of nature to the best of our ability. I feel that by dumping wastewater in Boysen will hurt our symbiotic relationship with our precious resources of water and the life it brings to us.