

Traci Mathias

I am outraged you would even consider allowing an energy company to dump processed water that was used for fracking in our precious water.

I deeply oppose any and all dumping of contaminated water anywhere that harms humans or animals.