

Malinda Garcia

As an outdoor recreationalist, teacher, and concerned citizen, I vote no on any projects that seek to do serious and irreversible harm to our national resources. I am not in support of economic opportunities that could damage access to our most precious resources for future generations, including my son who will inherit the Earth we leave behind.