

Todd Smith

To whom it may concern, as a local resident of Fremont County I oppose the proposed dumping of waste water into Boysen Reservoir. This water way is the main source of recreation, fishing, and irrigation water for us and surrounding areas. I feel there is high potential to damage this resource within our great state.