

richard scott

I am against the discharge of Aethon oilfield waste water into Boysen Reservoir and the Wind River/Big Horn River system. The discharge volume is too much for the river system to absorb and dilute while still maintaining high water quality. The waste water should be treated by the company to the level that is commensurate with drinking water. Then it could be discharged.