

Keith Collins

I worked in the oil industry but I can't condone this action on your part. I have noticed that Badwater Creek runs much later into the summer than it used to back in the 1980s, so I suspect you are already allowing production water to flow into Boysen without public comment. Make them reinject it.