

Joe Chizek

The discharge of oil by-product into the Boysen Reservoir would impact the wildlife and natural landscape surrounding. Also the clean water and healthy aquatic ecosystems are essential to everyone. The consequences of dumping will overall hurt communities and their food quality. Its not worth the risk in our beautiful rivers and lakes in the state of Wyoming.