

Calvin Schmidt

I just don't understand the mindset that thinks increasing pollution levels in our watersheds is anything but criminal. I've spent many years in the Thermopolis area and would be sorely disappointed in the local population if this permit would be granted. At what point do we say clean water is worth more than temporary profit and/or convenience?