

Jeff Troxel

Clean water and fisheries are worth far more to the state than some short-term profits for a single company. Wyoming cannot afford to compromise our future and allow our waters to be polluted. There is no greater legacy we can leave our children than clean water and the continued health of wildlife and ecosystems. I am opposed to allowing any kind of dumping and discharge into Boysen Reservoir.