

john parr

Hundreds of down river users from the inlet of Poison Creek to the Yellowstone and beyond will be affected by this so-called "mixing" the DEQ proposes for a solution. This is old disproven technology that didn't work in the 60's. I am totally against this permit as there are better solutions.