

Jeffrey Garcua

This is a terrible idea that threatens many aspects of a reservoir that I grew up using. Even if there is adequate guidelines for what can and cannot be dumped, I have spent time in the energy sector and I am very aware of how corners are cut when it comes to environmental policies. All it takes is laziness to threaten the safety of a reservoir that is the watershed for many tributaries.