

Sister Ruth Hehn

Please don't contaminate the beautiful water that gives such pleasure to many people who count on the water for healthy fish and being able to swim and ski without fear of being infected with some disease or illness.

Thanks for taking care of people and our environment.