

John Kwiatkowski

The waste water needs to be either treated or injected, the long term degradation of Boysen can not be a justification for reduction in production costs.