

Joanne Westbrook

I strongly urge the Wyoming DEQ to ensure that Wyoming surface waters are kept clear of pollution from the Moneta Divide oil and gas field by requiring that discharged water be fully treated and purified and not be discharged into area creeks or in any way allowed to enter the Wind River. DEQ should be creative and vigorous in its role in ensuring the quality and purity of Wyoming's water, an incredibly important resource for this state. Thank you.