

Cathleen Aldrich

Please reconsider using Boysen and the Wind River as a dump for toxic materials. My husband and I regularly fish at Boysen and enjoy watching the birds and animals that rely on this water source. We urgently need to protect this resource. Mineral extraction should not come with a calculated cost to our natural resources.