

Deanna Barnes

Please do not allow this change. One of Wyoming's most important assets is its environment. The long term effects of this change will harm the state more than it will benefit us. I am strongly against this change.