

Anna Sucher

Wyoming needs clean water to sustain its active tourism industry and to facilitate outdoor recreation. Allowing a company from Texas to destroy Wyoming's beautiful rivers and lakes is absolutely horrifying. Exploitation of the land in this way is an evil we can't allow to happen in our state.