

Rhonda Coleman

Keep Wyoming waters clean. The company does not want to pay extra money for cleaning contaminated water that their operation will release. Why should Wyoming citizens bear the cost to their health and environment? More jobs and a cleaner environment will result in the company cleaning the water before release. Please do not let Wyoming become a dumping ground for cheap companies.

Sincerely,

Rhonda coleman