

Kristen Brown

I am appalled that the Moneta project is being considered while not protecting the Class 1 rivers that will be impacted. We do need jobs and sources of energy in Wyoming, but we also need to be able to drink and recreate in clean water. I am urging you to analyze options that do not impact our surface waters. It's time to develop a proposal that protects the quality of our water now and in the future.