

Stefani Smith

Regarding the Atheon Moneta Divide water discharge proposal, enough is enough with risky waste water discharge. We have too many lives depending on the water that flows from Boysen. We have too much cancer and sickness in our communities and too much profit in the fossil fuels industry. Its time to get real and crack down on the industries pollution.