

Kathy McCoy

I am totally against Aethon dumping water into the streams that run through our small town. It used to be you could hear frog at night down on the creek and no more. Please don't allow this because our water is a precious and rare commodity that once tainted is gone forever