

Kathryn Jenkins

I am strongly opposed to the proposal to discharge millions of gallons per day of produced water into the creeks that flow into Boysen Reservoir and then on to the Wind River and Thermopolis' water supply without proper consideration of the consequences to the health and safety of the reservoir, the river and the people and wildlife.