

Douglas Irvine

Deny this permit. It is reckless and damaging to the environment we live in and utilize for recreation and outdoor tourism. The company whom generates waste must develop and implement plans to safely store or decontaminate waste. They should not get a pass to naively dump this waste and pass on the consequences to the people of Wyoming.