

Bob and Suzanne Hargis

This is a ridiculously over the top thoughtless and bad idea.. to deliberately add pollutants with bad outcomes for the health of this wonderful fishery and water source down river is insane..

Please consider the source of such short sighted notions producing environmental degradation for who knows how long.. for what.. think of us living now recreating there and think of our kids who might like to down the road..

Not to mention the warped idea in the first place.