

Laney Hicks

It is beyond my understanding how it can even come up to think about dumping fracking water into Boysen Reservoir. This is the source of irrigation for thousands of acres of farmland downstream, not to mention recreation on the lake and fisheries. No way should this request even be considered. For me it is a big NO.