

Alanita White

As a citizen of this Equality State, Wyoming, county of Fremont located on the Wind River Reservation, I strongly disagree with any pollutants being allowed to flow into Boysen Reservoir or any other body of water.

I have confidence that your company will realize the importance of clean water...not only for humans but for all animals and plant life.

Plaese take the time to clean your pollutants out of our water.